

LAURENE WOLF, DMD ORTHODONTICS (NJ specialty permit #5056)

Dr. Laurene Wolf is equally committed to providing the highest standard in orthodontic care and reaching out to the community in which she lives and works. In 2008, she established the Giving Smiles™ program, a nonprofit organization recognizing and rewarding local children who are making an outstanding and significant contribution in the community.

Dr. Wolf's practice focuses on the treatment of children, adolescents, and adults. She incorporates both state-of-the-art materials and customized treatment planning, and personally treats each patient during every visit. This comprehensive approach ensures that the highest quality of care is achieved in less time with maximum comfort.

Dr. Wolf graduated as valedictorian from the University of Pennsylvania School of Dental Medicine and completed her orthodontic residency at the prestigious University of Washington, where she earned a master's in the science of dentistry. She is a Diplomate of the American Board of Orthodontics and a past president of the Central New Jersey Dental Society.
